

Canada's Tournament Capital

City of Kamloops Canada's Tournament Capital Facilities Guide

Kamloops – Canada's Tournament Capital

Kamloops is Canada's premier location for tournaments, high-performance training camps, provincial, national and international competitions and cultural events.

Whether you have 30 competitors – or 3,000, Kamloops has the facilities, services and volunteers ready to help you host a successful and memorable event.

COMMITMENT

Canada's Tournament Capital is proud to be home to world class sport facilities. Our team of sport staff is dedicated to providing red carpet hosting standards to ensure your event exceeds expectations. We are committed to providing a first-class sport experience for every participant from the grassroots performer to international athletes going for gold.

CONVENIENCE

As Canada's Tournament Capital, we know that finding the right accommodation for teams, families and officials is critical to hosting a successful event. That is why we boast more than 3,000 hotel and motel rooms located in over 50 properties within the community.

With choices from economy to ultra-luxury, it's easy to find the ideal accommodation for your needs – and your budget. No matter where you choose to stay, our accommodations are conveniently located within 15 minutes drive of our tournament facilities.

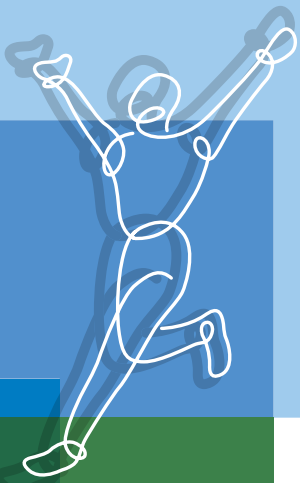

With more than 200 restaurants, Kamloops offers something for every diet and dining preference. Many restaurants are able to accommodate large teams and can help you celebrate your events success.

CENTRAL LOCATION

Kamloops is ideally located in the heart of British Columbia's sunny Southern Interior and is easily accessed by road, air and rail. Driving from major centres like Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton or Seattle is quick and convenient with three major highways passing through our city. Daily flights from Vancouver and Calgary to the newly renovated Kamloops Airport are offered by Air Canada and WestJet. Or choose a memorable experience and travel to Kamloops by rail with Rocky Mountaineer Vacations or Via Rail.

SPORT SUPPORT

Media

The Kamloops media reaches 160,000 people throughout BC's Southern Interior – by television, radio and newspaper. Canada's Tournament Capital sport reporters are enthusiastic supporters of sport events, and will help you put your event - and your athletes - in the spotlight.

Most Tournament Capital facilities have wireless high-speed internet service.

Medical

There are several options for expert medical care in Kamloops. Located a short distance from Tournament Capital facilities, the Royal Inland Hospital is a tertiary care facility providing the latest diagnostic and rehabilitation equipment, as well as a full range of medical, surgical and emergency services.

The Sage Sport Institute provides medical and physiotherapy services at the Tournament Capital Centre and is operated by internationally accredited sports medicine physicians and therapists.

St John Ambulance attendants provide superb on-the-spot first aid services for many local sport events. More than 60 volunteers log over 11,000 hours at almost 300 events each year.

Volunteers

Every event's success is due in a large part to the dedication of its volunteers – and our community prides itself in offering the best volunteer support available. In acknowledgement of this extraordinary group, the City of Kamloops is developing a Tournament Capital Volunteer Club to ensure continued quality sport hosting by supporting, organizing and recognizing volunteer efforts.
